to UNESCO
UNESCO House

Dear Ambassador,

I wish to thank you for your letter of 9 November 2015, by which you inform me of the joint organization of the international conference "Which values unite us today" by the Geneva Spiritual Appeal (Switzerland), and the Public Policy Institute and the Centre for Eastern Languages and Cultures at Sofia University St. Kliment Ohridski (Bulgaria), to be held in Sofia from 26 to 28 November next, and request, on behalf of the organizers, the granting of UNESCO's patronage for this event.

At the outset, allow me to congratulate the organizers for this highly appreciated initiative, which will gather international actors from the intellectual and political world to explore innovative approaches to the promotion of UNESCO's objectives and ideals, so much needed in today's turbulent landscapes.

It is with pleasure, therefore, that I grant UNESCO's patronage for this conference and authorize the use of the Organization's name and logo on the communication material for the event, in accordance with the enclosed General Conditions.

With my best wishes for the great success of this event, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Cordially,
